HUM HAIN BUNYAAN-UN-MARSOOS

A patriotic ceremony "Hum Hain Bunyaan-un-Marsoos" was held at Islamabad on 5 May 2026 to celebrate Pakistan's victory in Marka-e-Haq. The event was attended by Scouts, Scout Leaders, officials, youth representatives, and members of the community. The ceremony commenced with the recitation of the Holy Quran and the National Anthem, followed by prayers for the peace, prosperity, and progress of Pakistan. Scouts participated enthusiastically, and expressed their commitment to serve the nation through the values of Scouting. A tribute was paid by the Scouts to the Armed Forces of Pakistan for their courage, professionalism, and sacrifices in safeguarding the sovereignty and integrity of the country. It was emphasized that the victory in Marka-e-Haq reflected the unity, determination, and resilience of the Pakistani nation. The event also featured youth presentations, which inspired a strong sense of national pride among the participants. Special prayers were offered for the martyrs and veterans who rendered invaluable services for the defense of the homeland. A cake-cutting ceremony was also held to commemorate the historic victory. The participants enthusiastically joined the celebration, expressing their joy, gratitude, and solidarity with the nation. The ceremony symbolized national unity and collective pride in Pakistan's achievements. The ceremony concluded with a renewed pledge by all participants to work for the progress, unity, and prosperity of Pakistan, embodying the spirit of "Hum Hain Bunyaan-un-Marsoos."
